Deaf parents are a special type of mother and father. In 1994, this organization, Children of Deaf Adults (CODAs) decided to designate one day each year for hearing children (young & old) everywhere to honor their Deaf parents: Mother, Father Deaf Day, held each year on the last Sunday in April. The day is usually marked with events like picnics, beach outings, etc.

If you cannot come to this one, consider arranging one in your area!
